

MAKING DISCIPLES OF ALL NATIONS

January 7, 2009

To our friends & family,

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus. He is the Son of God, eternal life, creator of all things; He fills all things everywhere with himself and everything is held together by His power. I must say, how can we doubt Him? How can we not trust Him with every aspect of our Life; health, finance, children, home, food, clothing? I am here to bring encouragement to the body of Christ and those who dare to trust in Him for all things. I must testify as the Spirit is upon me in the writing of this letter, God is the one who owns the cattle upon a thousand hills, He says all the Gold is mine and all the silver is mine. Jesus tells us to seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things will be added to us (Matt 6:19-34).

One of the scriptures that Tiffany and I held in our hearts before leaving for Africa was Mark 10:28-31. Then Peter began to speak up. "We've given up everything to follow you," he said. 29 "Yes," Jesus replied, "and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or property, for my sake and for the Good News, 30 will receive now in return a hundred times as many houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and property—along with persecution. And in the world to come that person will have eternal life.31 But many who are the greatest now will be least important then, and those who seem least important now will be the greatest then.*"

We now see this scripture as a reality in how the Lord is faithful in providing for our every need but I must say that it has been with persecution. Many times thoughts will run through my head, is it worth the sacrifice? But soon after the thoughts of despair the peace of God will come, the peace that passes all understanding, the love of God will come in like a flood, the love that is too great to understand fully. Then I will say yes Lord it is all worth it, I must go on because you went on and laid down everything for me. Be of good cheer saints, He can be trusted and He is true to His word, God cannot lie my friends.

I am thankful from the depths of my soul and I speak for my family as well; how grateful we are to the body of Christ, for friends and family who have prayed and supported us. I know that the Lord has sent you into our lives for this time. My prayer to God is that He richly blesses you beyond measure that He will do unto you as you have done to us. Dear Jesus open the flood gates of heaven and rain down such blessing upon our friends and family that they will not be able to contain it. Jesus draw them ever closer to you, empower them with the same power that raised you from the dead, that they would lay everything down at the cross, for unless a kernel of wheat is planted in the soil and dies, it remains alone. But its death will produce many new kernels-a plentiful harvest of new lives (Jn 12:24). We have found life in death, dieing to self that Jesus might rule and reign within our mortal bodies.

Since 2004 this scripture has been experienced at its highest level, Eph 3:20 Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think.
